

Theme for Weeks Three and Four: Heart for People

The love of man should be the basis upon which we function in all that we do in the disciple-making ministry. It draws its power from and flows from one's heart for God. But this love is not to be understood nor defined by human standards, but rather by divine revelation. It is only in understanding fully God's expectations for a disciple's heart for people that we can fully grasp the nature of our call. All loves save love for God alone must fade before our love for men. In completing these third and fourth weeks of quiet time assignments, seek to grow in your understanding of what it means to love men and in so doing to increase your heart for people.
